DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1,2,5-8,10,11,14 in the reply filed on 2/7/07 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1,2,5-8,10,11,14, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USP 4,651,380(Ogden).

Ogden discloses a portable wet/dry vacuum for cleaning floors (hard or carpeted) comprising a central tank and vacuum assembly, 41, a wand 16, a hose assembly 17, and a vacuum assembly comprising a first blower 95 and second blower 96, the blowers capable of operating in parallel or series. The system includes wheels 36, an lower tank 46 for waste water recovery and an upper tank 55 having vacuum inlet 49. The waste water is vacuumed from the wand 16 through hose 17 to inlet 45 into tank 46 where a separator 48 separates the air from the waste water. The system includes a lowest clean water storage tank 70 having a clean water inlet 66, a low pressure pump 76 or high pressure pump 77 for delivering the clean water to the wand 16 and a waste water pump 89 for pumping the collected waste water out of outlet valve 92. The system in Ogden differs from the claims in that two vacuum pumps are used as opposed to the claimed three.

In re Harza, 274 F.2d 669, 124 USPQ 378 (CCPA 1960) (Claims at issue were directed to a water-tight masonry structure wherein a water seal of flexible material fills the joints which form between adjacent pours of concrete. The claimed water seal has a "web" which lies ** in the joint, and a plurality of "ribs" ** >projecting outwardly from each side of the web into one of the adjacent concrete slabs. <The prior art disclosed a flexible water stop for preventing passage of water between masses of concrete in the shape of a plus sign (+). Although the reference did not disclose a plurality of ribs, the court held that mere duplication of parts has no patentable significance unless a new and unexpected result is produced.).

In the absence of unexpected results, the addition of a third blower to the two blowers in the system of Ogden is considered to be obvious.
